

Saturday, February 6, 2021 10:00 am to 1:30 pm

Hello!

We're thrilled you can join us
for the WA-SEN 2021
Olympia Days Summit.

Today's students are vital to Washington's economic success—and recovery. Using the strength of a unified collective voice, we're bringing together college students from across the state and across sectors to rise up and speak out about why higher education and equity in financial aid is important to them.

The day's agenda includes a refresher for those who attended the 2020 Fall Summit and an introduction to those new to WA-SEN, group role play in preparation for meetings with legislators in February and March (see chart on page 2), and an opportunity to hear from inspiring speakers. This virtual gathering will connect you with a network of other like-minded students across 50 campuses.

Come prepared to share your interests and journey to and through college, while working in allyship and partnership to tackle the tough issues of today that provide equitable access to higher education.

This event is happening online.

Look for the Zoom link in your email on Friday, February 5th.

Land Acknowledgement

In preparation for the opening remarks and welcome, please come prepared to participate in a system-wide land acknowledgement by visiting: www.Native-Land.ca

This interactive Native Land map allows you to type in your address and pinpoint the land and Indigenous history where you live, school, or work.
